JUST JESUS

Suffering King

Mark 15:42-16:1-8

Application

Pastor Dave began his sermon talking about a guy who drove three hours in the WRONG direction. What is the biggest directional driving blunder you've ever made?

This week's message painted a vivid picture of Jesus' crucifixion. If you had been there watching him die a slow death, what would be three descriptive words that would convey the emotion of what you were witnessing? Share with the group your three words and why you chose them

In Mark 15, Joseph of Arimathea risks his reputation with his fellow cronies in order to honor Jesus. Who is a Christian man or woman who is influential in the world's eyes, yet courageously has spoken up and honored Jesus?

If you were in a debate class and you had to debate another Christian as to which was more significant for us - Jesus' birth or Jesus' resurrection - for which do you think you could make a stronger case? Why?

If you were one of the women to whom the angel spoke in the empty tomb, who is the first person you would have told the news to?
