The Parable of the Bridesmaids

Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten bridesmaids who took their lamps and went to meet the groom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them, but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the groom was delayed, they all became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a cry, 'Here is the groom! Come out to meet him.' Then all those bridesmaids woke up, and cut the wicks of their lamps so the flame wouldn't produce a greasy smoke. Then they all checked the amount of oil in their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, "Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out." But the wise answered, saying, 'Since there will not be enough for us and for you, go rather to the people who sell lamp oil and buy for yourselves. And while they were going to buy, the groom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. Afterward the other bridesmaids came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' But he answered, "Truly, I say to you, I do not know you.' Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."
